FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1915.

This is not exactly a missionary edition of The Chronicle, and yet—we are convinced that we could not give space to a more worthy cause than that of aiding in a small way the great Christian task of carrying the light of the gospel into the dark places of the world.

Up to a year ago the Christian forces in China could not be said to have gained more than an entrance into the government schools and colleges of any city. Today there are several cities where not only has an entrance been secured but Christian work and influence are implanted and actively cooperating in these citadels which were aptly named ten years ago the Gibraltar of China.

The spirit of humanity, of co-operation, of brotherhood is rapidly developing, and its mighty, mutual benefit is becoming better understood. Rejoicing and very reverently we catch President Wilson's vision of the patriots of our republic, fused, melted and welded into one great pulsating heart, "the heart of America that shall interpret the heart of the world." Let each temperance patriot wear in his heart the flag of our country. Let each patriotic heart be linked to God by cables of faith and prayer. So shall we speedily win our fight for a sober nation, and the purified heart of America shall worthily interpret the heart of the world.—Anna A. Gordon, president national Woman's Christian Temperance Union, at Seattle.

Are you angry? Is your lip cracked? Are you afraid of wrinkles? Are you suffering from an ingrowing grouch? None of them? Then why don't you smile? History tells us of men who trained themselves not to smile, because they wanted a stern expression of countenance. The savages also prided themselves on not showing any sort of emotion. Have you noticed in the photographs, that the mothers of the war heroes of Europe are not smiling? Neither are the generals who are doing the killing. Only the heroes themselves are smiling. A hard and stern expression does not indicate a good heart nor a clear conscience. A thief seldom smiles. The woman of the streets smiles with her lips, but her eyes are hard and cold. The poverty-stricken man on the streets who begs for a dime, sends his plea direct to your heart if his appeal is accompanied by a smile. Only the failures of life never smile. A smile is the cry of the sentry of the soul—"All's well!"

WAIT FOR HER, BOYS.

The girl who is unkind to her mother isn't worth a tinker's dog-gone. This isn't written in any part of the Bible, but it's written in the history of thousands and thousands of misfit homes. If one of you boys ever run across a girl with her face full of roses; with eyes that dim the lustre of a Colorado sky and with a voice that would make the song of an angel seem discordant, and she says, as she comes to the door:

"I can't go for a few minutes, I've got to help mother with the dishes." Don't give her up. Stick to her like a burr to a mule's tail. Just sit down on the door-step and wait. If she joins you in two or three minutes, so much the better; but if you have to stay there on the door-step for a half hour, or an hour, you just stay there on the door-step for a half hour or an hour, you just wait for her. If you don't somebody else will and in time you'll be sorry. For you'll realize what you have lost.

Wait for her, boys. She's worth it.

WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.

There will be a meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society with Mrs. Frank B. Jones at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon, October 26. The program follows:

Bible lesson, Malachi iii 8 to 23, Mrs. J. V. Travis.

Hymns, selected.

Prayer.

General discussion,

"Christian stewardship," Mrs. J. H. Jordan.

Topic, "Rural life in Mexico," Mrs. E. O. Thomas.

Topic, "Call of the country," Mrs. W. M. Kincannon.

Map study, "Mexico," Mrs. S. L. Peeler.

Query, "Why study missions," Mrs. G. P. Hicks.

HAYES-YARBROUGH.

Horace Lee Hayes of Jackson and Miss Mary Louise Yarbrough were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Minnie Yarbrough, in South Camden, Rev. J. L. Hudgins officiating. The marriage was a quiet one, only a few friends and relatives being present.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Yarbrough, and is a young woman greatly admired by all who know her for her many lovely traits of character. Mr. Hayes, who formerly made Camden his home, is connected with office of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Co. at Jackson, where they will make their home.

The Chronicle joins in congratulations and best wishes for a happy future.

NOTICE.

All parties indebted to me by note or account are requested to call at Eva and make settlement by November 15.

L. P. BROWNING.

It is estimated that at least eighty thousand people attended the union evangelistic services recently held in Osaka, Japan. This work was a part of the three years' evangelistic campaign in Japan.

Now is your opportunity to save some money. Stigall & Potts are closing out some lines of shoes, small and large sizes, for prices that will save you one half your shoe bill.

Liv-ver-lax stimulates the liver. A harmless vegetable compound. Any child can take it safely. Ask any druggist.

COUNTY MEETING FARMERS' UNION

The fall meeting of the Benton County Farmers' Union will be held at Flatwoods Friday and Saturday, October 29-30.

It is especially desired that each local in the county be represented at this meeting, also that the local presidents and secretaries be present in order that we may plan for the coming year.

President Clay Rushing and O. P. Lashlee attended the recent State convention, and they will be able to give important and useful information to the union body.

Bear in mind, brethren, that new county officers will be elected at this meeting.

GRANVILLE GOODMAN,
Secretary and Treasurer.

LOCATION OF CAMDEN.

The following is a study theme of Irl Barker, student of first year English class of Camden high school:

"Our home town was located in 1836 upon a small portion of forty acres of land owned by John Jackson. Benton County was formed by combining parts of Humphreys and Decatur Counties, and in the year 1836 a committee was appointed to select a place for the location of the county seat. In a meeting held at the small postoffice, Tranquility, one mile west of where Camden now is, they selected the farm of Jackson as it was centrally located in the county and was on the old stage route from Memphis to Nashville. The selection was a wise one as it was a healthful one. The land was gotten free by giving Mr. Jackson a few choice lots near court square.

Liv-ver-lax is purely vegetable. Just what you need to tone up your system. Ask your druggist.

Wake up your liver. A lazy liver brings on the worst of diseases. Take Liv-ver-lax now.

Insolvent Notice

By order of the County Court Clerk of Benton County, Tennessee, notice is hereby given to all parties having claims against the estate of J. J. Weatherly, deceased, to appear before the County Court Clerk of Benton County, Tennessee, and file them properly authenticated in the manner prescribed by law, on or before the 16th day of January, 1916, the insolvency of said estate having been duly suggested. Any claim not filed on or before said date will be forever barred both in law and equity.

This the 16th day of October, 1915.
CHAS. LEVY,
Administrator.

Non-Resident Notice

W. A. PRINCE ET ALVS VS. LOLA SCOTT ET ALVS—IN THE COUNTY COURT AT CAMDEN, TENNESSEE

In this case it duly appearing to me from the bill, which is sworn to, that Lola Scott and husband, Clarence Scott, are non-residents of the State of Tennessee and are residents of the State of Oregon; that Lena Kingery and husband, Raney Kingery, are non-residents of the State of Tennessee and are residents of the State of Oklahoma; therefore it is ordered by me that said defendants, to-wit, Lola Scott and husband, Clarence Scott, and Lena Kingery and husband, Raney Kingery, personally appear before the Judge of the County Court of said county at the court house in Camden on or before the fourth Monday in October, next, same being the 25th day of said month and a rule day of the court, and make defense to the bill filed against them and others in the above styled cause seeking to sell the lands of William Hansel, deceased, for partition. It is further ordered that this notice be published for four consecutive weeks in The Camden Chronicle.

This September 29, 1915.
A. L. HASSELL,
Clerk and Special Commissioner
Odle & Frazier, solicitors for complainants.

Sale of Land

C. L. Holland vs. Ross Totty et als—In County Court at Camden, Tenn.

In obedience to a decree of the County Court at Camden, made at the September term, 1915, in the above styled case, I will, on

MONDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1915,
at Eva, Tenn., sell to the highest and best bidder the property in said decree described, being four tracts of land known as the B. A. Totty lands lying and being in the tenth civil district of Benton County, Tenn., a complete description of which will be given on day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.

Sale will be made one-third cash and remainder on credit of six and twelve months, the purchaser giving his interest-bearing notes with approved personal security for the deferred payments and a lien will be retained on the lands as further security. See hand bills as to subdivision into lots, etc. Said lands will be sold subject to the life estate of Mrs. M. J. Totty.

This September 25, 1915.

Women Tell Why They Love This Magazine

"From Fashion to Fiction, it is Supreme" writes Mrs. J. H. of New York.

"Of all the magazines I have ever taken or read, I like McCALL'S best," writes Mrs. V. of California. "It has such helpful household suggestions, good, clean, bright stories, and is a very convenient size to handle." "The second year I received saved me far more than enough to pay for a year's subscription," writes Mrs. A. J. of Texas. "I cannot tell you all that it means to me," writes a South Carolina subscriber. "I have taken McCALL'S since I was married and it has made my MAGAZINE show I was married and my husband took it for years before and does now. I go to it for every need. Every new dish I prepare, or 'help' I learn, my husband says: 'You must have gotten that from McCALL'S' and he is right. I could not do without it."

A Recognized Fashion Authority for 45 Years.

More Subscribers Than Any Other Fashion Magazine.

"I am in my fifth year and still supporting myself. I like McCALL'S the best and I have been dressing since I was 21," writes Mrs. M. L. of Connecticut. "From its dressmaking lessons and its simple and instructive patterns, I have learned to dress my family neatly and stylishly," writes Mrs. S. of Kentucky. "Our family has worked for you every year but two since your magazine started," writes Miss E. of Nebraska. "I am a dressmaker and never use any other patterns but McCALL'S, and I never have any trouble in giving perfect satisfaction," writes Mrs. B. of Indiana. "The most reliable book on fashions. Your Fashion-Work Department has earned quite a few dollars for me," writes Mrs. C. of Oregon.
